Teachers Feedback Form

(Academic Year 2023-24)

Teachers Feedback Report (Academic Year 2022-23)

Introduction:

The feedback form aimed to evaluate various aspects of the curriculum, resources, institutional support, and facilities provided to faculty during the academic year 2022-23. A total of 13 feedback responses were received and analyzed. This report highlights the key findings and percentages derived from the feedback.

Feedback Analysis and Observations:

1. Curriculum Sufficiency to Cover Course Objectives and Programme Outcomes:

- Excellent: 61.53%
- Good: 38.46%
- Satisfactory: -
- Adequate: -

The majority of teachers (61.53%) rated the curriculum as excellent, indicating strong alignment with course objectives and outcomes.

2. Curriculum Supporting Ethics and Social Values Among Students:

- Excellent: 46.15%
- Good: 53.84%
- Satisfactory: -
- Adequate: -

Over half of the teachers (53.84%) acknowledged the curriculum's effectiveness in instilling ethics and social values as good.

3. Course Syllabus Containing Well-Defined Objectives and Outcomes:

- Excellent: 53.84%
- Good: 46.15%
- Satisfactory: -
- Adequate: -

Most teachers (53.84%) found the course syllabus to have clear objectives and outcomes, though a substantial portion rated it as good.

4. Sufficiency of Lectures Allotted to the Course:

- Excellent: 30.76%
- Good: 46.15%
- Satisfactory: 15.38%
- Adequate: 7.69%

While most teachers rated this parameter as good (46.15%), 23.07% felt it was merely satisfactory or adequate, indicating a need for review.

5. Availability of Prescribed Books (Text and Reference):

- Excellent: 53.84%
- Good: 15.38%
- Satisfactory: 30.76%
- Adequate: -

A majority of teachers (53.84%) found the availability of prescribed books excellent, but nearly one-third (30.76%) highlighted room for improvement.

6. Evaluation Pattern of the Course:

- Excellent: 61.53%
- Good: 38.46%
- Satisfactory: -
- Adequate: -

The evaluation pattern was considered definite and sufficient by all respondents, with most (61.53%) rating it as excellent.

7. Institutional Support for Skill Development and Qualification Upgradation:

- Excellent: 61.53%
- Good: 38.46%
- Satisfactory: -
- Adequate: -

Teachers widely appreciated the institutional support for skill development, with no negative feedback.

8. Administrative Support:

- Excellent: 69.23%
- Good: 30.76%
- Satisfactory: -
- Adequate: -

The highest-rated parameter, administrative support, was deemed excellent by 69.23% of respondents.

9. Support for ICT Facilities:

- Excellent: 38.46%
- Good: 61.53%
- Satisfactory: -

- Adequate: -
ICT support was rated as good by a majority (61.53%), reflecting overall satisfaction but potential for enhancement.

Key Insights:

1. Strengths:

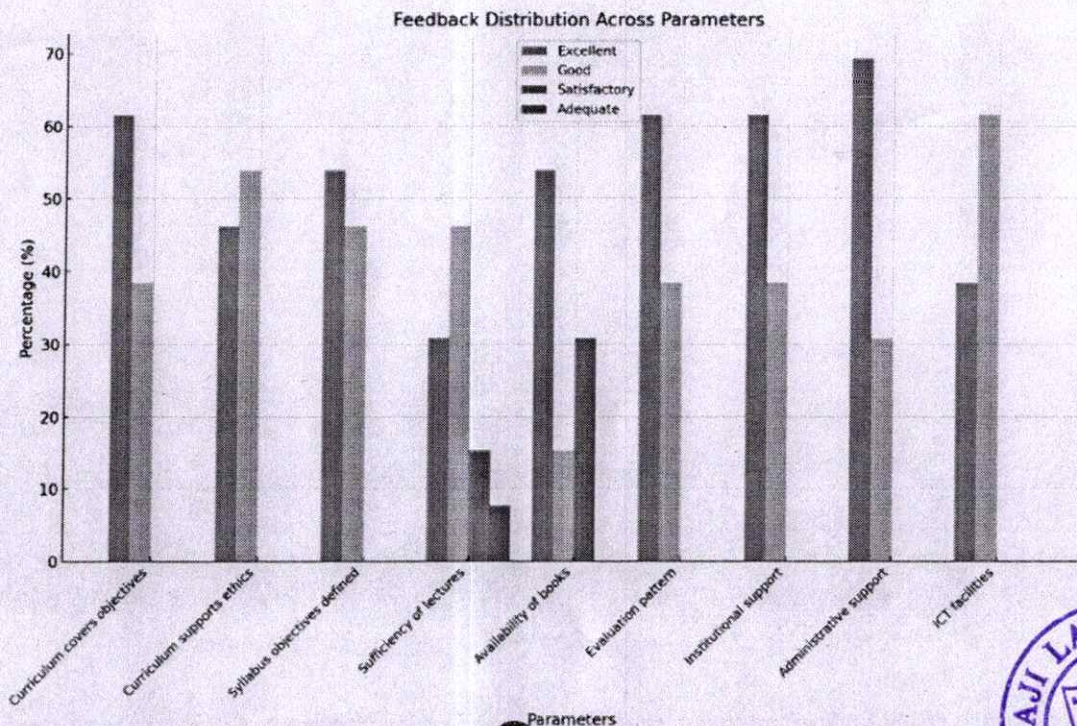

- Administrative support (69.23% excellent).
- Curriculum alignment with objectives and evaluation pattern (61.53% excellent).
- Institutional support for professional development (61.53% excellent).

2. Areas for Improvement:

- Lecture allotment sufficiency: 23.07% rated as satisfactory or adequate.
- Availability of prescribed books: 30.76% rated as satisfactory.
- ICT facilities, while generally good, had fewer excellent ratings (38.46%).

Recommendations:

1. Reassess Lecture Allotments: Evaluate the adequacy of lectures per course and adjust schedules if needed to enhance coverage.
2. Improve Library Resources: Address gaps in the availability of prescribed books by expanding the collection of both textbooks and reference materials.
3. Enhance ICT Support: Invest in upgrading ICT infrastructure and provide training to maximize utility.

Conclusion:

The overall feedback indicates that the institution is performing well in most areas, particularly in providing administrative and professional support. Addressing the identified areas for improvement can further enhance the academic experience for both faculty and students.

Action Taken Report

Subject: Implementation of Suggestions from Feedback Forms by Students and Alumni for Library Enhancement

In response to the feedback received from students and alumni regarding the improvement of library resources, the following actions have been taken:

1. Purchase of Database Subscriptions:

To enhance legal research capabilities and provide access to comprehensive legal resources, the college has purchased subscriptions to the following databases:

- ABC Reader: A reliable tool for accessing academic journals, articles, and legal literature.
- AIR (All India Reporter): A renowned database for case law references and legal precedents.
- LEXISNEXIS: A global legal research platform providing extensive case law, statutes, and legal commentary.

2. Membership with Jaykar Library, Savitribai Phule Pune University:

- The college has secured a membership with the Jaykar Library to provide students and faculty access to an extensive collection of books, journals, and research material available at the university level.

3. Enhancement for Balaji Law College Library:

- Efforts have been made to upgrade the Balaji Law College library with additional resources and tools to support the academic and professional growth of the students.

Impact:

These steps have been taken to meet the academic and research needs of students and faculty while fostering a more resource-rich learning environment. This initiative ensures access to diverse, updated, and authoritative legal materials.

Acknowledgment:

We extend our gratitude to all students and alumni for their valuable feedback and assure them of continued efforts in improving the library's facilities.

Action Taken Report

Subject: Inauguration of Skill Development Centre Based on Student and Alumni Feedback

Background:

In response to feedback received from students and alumni suggesting the establishment of a Skill Development Centre, the college administration took the necessary steps to address this need. The initiative aligns with the institution's commitment to enhancing employability and professional skills among students.

Action Taken:

1. Planning and Approval:

- Feedback was reviewed, and the proposal for a Skill Development Centre was approved by the college management.
- Necessary resources, infrastructure, and course modules were identified and finalized.

2. Inauguration of the Centre:

- The Skill Development Centre was inaugurated on 16th September 2024 in the presence of
 - Professor Paramanandhana Blasubramanian (Chancellor)
 - Dr. Gangadhar Shirude (Vice Chancellor)
 - Dr. S. B. Agase (Registrar)
 - Dr. Dimple Saini, (CDC, Chairman)
 - Dr. Tejaswi Avhad, (Principal) & faculty, staff, and students.

3. Courses Offered:

- The Centre offers a range of skill development courses, including but not limited to:
 - Communication Skills
 - IT Skills
 - Data Entry
 - Account Executive
 - Leadership and Personality Development
 - Entrepreneurship
 - Hospitality

4. Enrollment:

- Over 20 students enrolled in various courses within the first month of the inauguration, showcasing a positive response to the initiative.

5. Implementation:

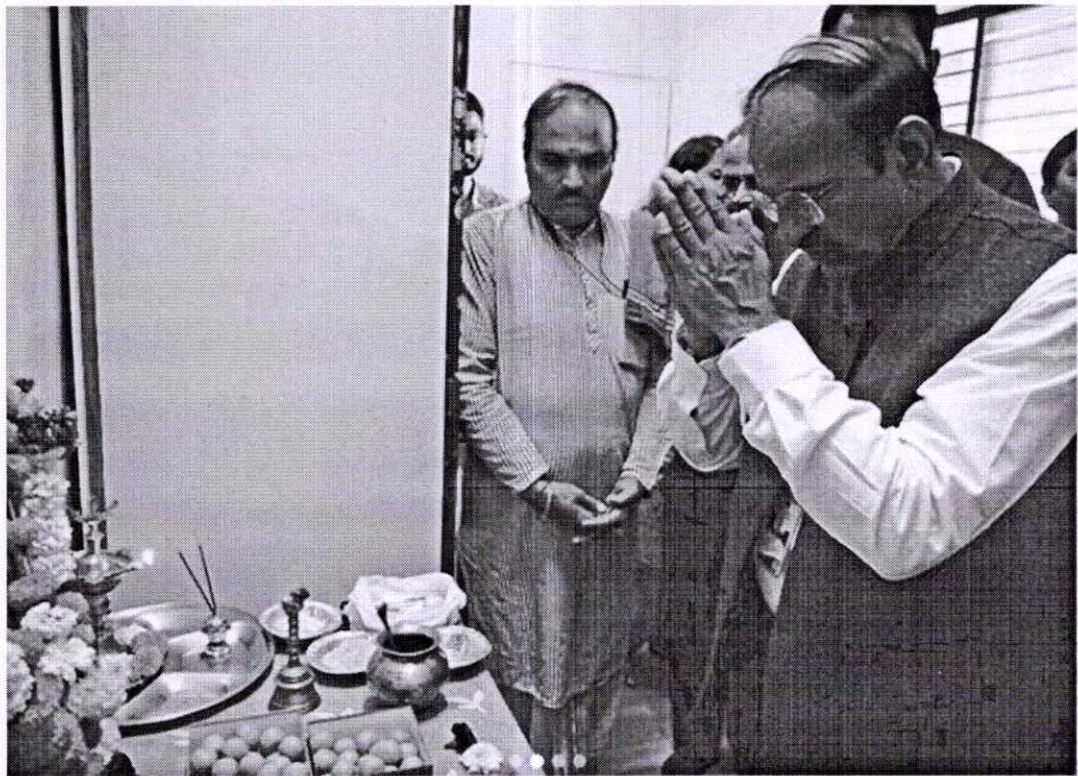

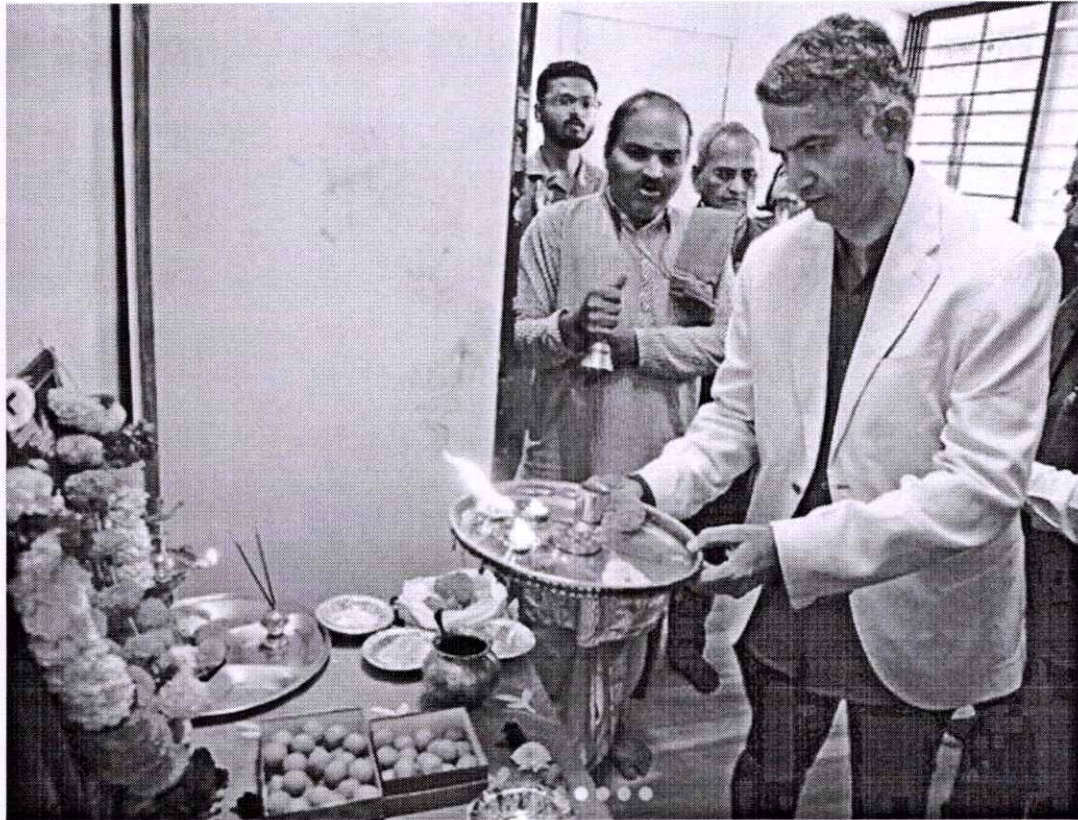

- The Centre is equipped with modern facilities and experienced faculty to ensure quality training.
- Regular workshops and guest lectures are being planned to supplement the learning experience.

Outcome:

The establishment of the Skill Development Centre demonstrates the institution's responsiveness to student and alumni feedback and its commitment to enhancing practical learning opportunities. The Centre is expected to significantly contribute to the overall development and employability of students.

This Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) is entered into on 12/9/2023 between Sri Balaji Society's Balaji Law College located at 55/2-7, Tathwade, Opposite Mumbai Bengaluru Highway, Off, Old Mumbai Rd, Pimpri-Chinchwad, Maharashtra 411033, hereinafter referred to as "Party A" and SNBP Law College, located at Morwadi, Pimpri, Pune - 411018, hereinafter referred to as "Party B."

Preamble: Recognizing the importance of academic collaboration and the benefits of Faculty Exchange in promoting academic and cultural understanding between our institutions, Party A and Party B hereby agree to establish a Faculty Exchange Program based on the following terms and conditions.

Article 1: Purpose

The purpose of this MOU is to promote academic collaboration, research cooperation and faculty development between Party A and Party B.

Article 2: Faculty Exchange Program

1. Both parties agree to establish a faculty exchange program that will enable the exchange of teaching and research staff between their respective institutions.
2. Faculty members eligible for the exchange program shall be selected based on their academic qualifications, research expertise and willingness to participate in the exchange.

Article 3: Duration of Exchange

The duration of faculty exchange visits shall be determined on a case by case basis. Exchange periods can vary from one day to one week, subject to mutual agreement between the parties involved.

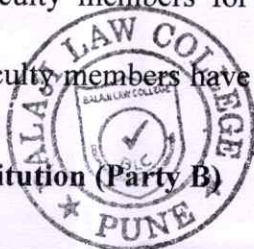

Article 4: Financial Provisions

Neither Party A nor Party B shall charge faculty exchange fees to the visiting faculty members during their exchange period.

Article 5: Responsibilities of the Sending Institution (Party A)

1. Party A shall nominate eligible faculty members for participation in the exchange program in consultation with Party B.
2. Party A shall ensure that selected faculty members have the necessary documents for their exchange period at Party B's institution.

Article 6: Responsibilities of the Host Institution (Party B)

71 68

1. Party B shall provide visiting faculty members with suitable working facilities, resources and support needed to conduct their teaching and research activities during the exchange period.
2. Party B shall appoint a designated contact person to assist visiting faculty members and facilitate their integration into the academic and social life at Party B's institution.

Article 7: Reporting and Evaluation

1. Both parties agree to regularly review and evaluate the effectiveness of the faculty exchange program and make necessary improvements.
2. Each party shall provide a comprehensive report on the exchange program, including the outcomes and achievements of the participating faculty members, at the end of each academic year.

Article 8: Intellectual Property Rights

1. Any intellectual property (IP) created or developed during the faculty exchange program shall be owned by the party or parties who created or developed it. This includes, but is not limited to, research findings, teaching materials, publications, and other works produced as a result of the exchange.
2. Each party agrees to acknowledge the contributions of the other party in any publications, presentations, or other materials resulting from the faculty exchange program. The acknowledgment should credit the original creators or contributors as appropriate.
3. Both parties agree to maintain the confidentiality of any proprietary or confidential information related to IP shared during the faculty exchange.

Article 9: Termination

This MOU shall become effective upon signature of both parties and shall continue in force for a period of One (1) Year.

Article 10: Termination

Either party may terminate this MOU by providing written notice to the other party at least one month prior to the intended termination date.

Article 11: Amendments

Any amendments to this MOU shall be made in writing and require the mutual consent of both parties.

Preamble: Recognizing the importance of academic collaboration and the benefits of Faculty Exchange in promoting academic and cultural understanding between our institutions, Party A and Party B hereby agree to establish a Faculty Exchange Program based on the following terms and conditions.

Article 1: Purpose

The purpose of this MOU is to promote academic collaboration, research cooperation and faculty development between Party A and Party B.

Article 2: Faculty Exchange Program

1. Both parties agree to establish a faculty exchange program that will enable the exchange of teaching and research staff between their respective institutions.
2. Faculty members eligible for the exchange program shall be selected based on their academic qualifications, research expertise and willingness to participate in the exchange.

Article 3: Duration of Exchange

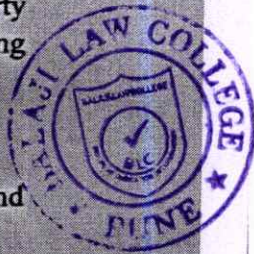

The duration of faculty exchange visits shall be determined on a case by case basis. Exchange periods can vary from one day to one week, subject to mutual agreement between the parties involved.

Article 4: Financial Provisions

Neither Party A nor Party B shall charge faculty exchange fees to the visiting faculty members during their exchange period.

Article 5: Responsibilities of the Sending Institution

1. Both parties shall nominate eligible faculty members for participation in the exchange program in consultation with each other.
2. The sending institution shall ensure that selected faculty members have the necessary documents for their exchange period.

Article 6: Responsibilities of the Host Institution

1. The host institution shall provide visiting faculty members with suitable working facilities, resources and support needed to conduct their teaching and research activities during the exchange period.
2. Both parties shall appoint a designated contact person to assist visiting faculty members and facilitate their integration into the academic and social life at the host institution.

Article 7: Reporting and Evaluation

1. Both parties agree to regularly review and evaluate the effectiveness of the faculty exchange program and make necessary improvements.
2. Each party shall provide a comprehensive report on the exchange program, including the outcomes and achievements of the participating faculty members, at the end of each academic year.

Article 8: Intellectual Property Rights

1. Any intellectual property (IP) created or developed during the faculty exchange program shall be owned by the party or parties who created or developed it. This includes, but is not limited to, research findings, teaching materials, publications, and other works produced as a result of the exchange.
2. Each party agrees to acknowledge the contributions of the other party in any publications, presentations, or other materials resulting from the faculty exchange program. The acknowledgment should credit the original creators or contributors as appropriate.
3. Both parties agree to maintain the confidentiality of any proprietary or confidential information related to IP shared during the faculty exchange.

Article 9: Termination

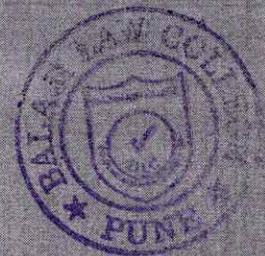

This MOU shall become effective upon signature of both parties and shall continue in force for a period of One (1) Year.

Article 10: Termination

Either party may terminate this MOU by providing written notice to the other party at least one month prior to the intended termination date.

Article 11: Amendments

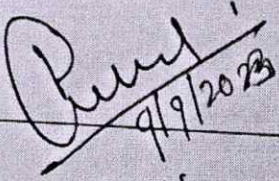

Any amendments to this MOU shall be made in writing and require the mutual consent of both parties.

Report on the Effectiveness of Remedial Classes – 2024

Introduction

The remedial classes initiative was designed to support students in strengthening their foundational understanding of subjects in which they initially underperformed. The aim was to provide personalized attention, clarify core concepts, and enable students to achieve better academic outcomes. This report highlights the measurable improvement in students' performance as a direct result of these efforts.

Performance Analysis

Below is a summary of the improvements achieved by students who attended remedial classes:

1. Shubhangi Verma

- Subject: General English
- First Semester Score: 47
- Second Semester Score: 58
- Improvement: +11 marks

The focused sessions on grammar, vocabulary, and writing skills significantly contributed to Shubhangi's improved performance.

2. Shristy Suman

- Subject: General Principles of Political Science
- First Semester Score: 28
- Second Semester Score: 47
- Improvement: +19 marks

Through remedial classes, Shristy gained a better understanding of key political concepts, analytical frameworks, and theoretical applications.

3. Amisha

- Subject: Law of Crimes
- First Semester Score: 34
- Second Semester Score: 46
- Improvement: +12 marks

Targeted discussions on case laws, legal principles, and practical problem-solving enabled Amisha to improve her comprehension and application of criminal law.

Importance of Remedial Classes

1. Enhancing Conceptual Clarity

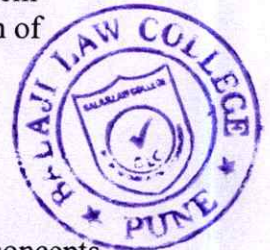

Remedial classes provide students with an opportunity to revisit fundamental concepts in a structured and supportive environment. These sessions focus on simplifying complex topics, thereby enhancing understanding and retention.

2. Building Academic Confidence

Students often feel demotivated by poor performance. Remedial classes help rebuild their confidence by enabling small, consistent improvements that gradually transform into significant achievements.

3. Personalized Learning

The smaller student-to-teacher ratio in remedial classes allows for individual attention, enabling educators to address specific challenges faced by each student.

84

4. Bridging Knowledge Gaps

Students with varied academic backgrounds may struggle with foundational gaps. Remedial classes focus on bridging these gaps, ensuring that all students can keep pace with the curriculum.

Conclusion

The substantial improvement in the academic performance of Shubhangi Verma, Shristy Suman, and Amisha demonstrates the effectiveness of the remedial classes program. Such initiatives are essential for creating an inclusive learning environment where every student has the opportunity to succeed. As the outcomes show, with proper guidance and support, students can overcome academic challenges and achieve their full potential.

Recommendations

1. Continue and expand remedial classes for other subjects and semesters.
2. Regularly assess student progress to identify areas requiring further improvement.
3. Incorporate feedback from students to enhance the effectiveness of these sessions.
